Camp Staff Application

In order to safeguard the well being of our campers, Camp Chabad will investigate the accuracy of all information provided during the application process. This investigation may include, but is not limited to, reference checks with past employers, the military, educational institutions, volunteer organizations, civic groups, and law enforcement agencies. As an applicant submitting this form, you consent to a professionally-conducted background check.

Important Information for Camp Chabad Staff

Smoking is not permitted on camp grounds or during any off-site camp trips. The illegal use of any controlled substance is absolutely prohibited while you are a staff member with Camp Chabad. No alcoholic beverages may be brought onto camp property and no one is to come to camp under the influence.

It is very important that you read and understand the Camp Chabad Staff Manual, policies and procedures. As a member of our staff, you will be required to adhere to these policies and guidelines as well as those conveyed during staff training and throughout the summer.

Camp work is physically, mentally and emotionally demanding, requires long hours and involves adherence to camp policies that may be limiting (limited time off, lack of privacy, no smoking, etc.). Is there anything that would prohibit you from complying with these policies?

_____ Yes _____ No

If you checked yes or require any special accommodations to perform your duties, please explain:

Internet Social Networking and Blogging Policy

If an employee of Camp Chabad chooses to identify himself or herself as an employee of Camp Chabad on a social networking site or on a blog or website, some readers of such Web sites or blogs may view the employee as a representative or spokesperson of the Camp. In light of this possibility, Camp Chabad requires, as a condition of employment at the Camp, that employees observe the following guidelines when referring to the Camp, its programs or activities, its campers, and/or other employees, in a post, blog, or any mention online.

1. Employees must be respectful in all communications and blogs related to or referencing the camp, its campers, and/or other employees.
2. Employees must not use obscenities, profanity, or vulgar language.
3. Employees must not use blogs or personal web sites to belittle or criticize the Camp, campers, or other employees of the Camp.
4. Employees must not use blogs or personal web sites to harass, bully, or intimidate other employees or campers. Behaviors that constitute harassment and bullying include, but are not limited to, comments that are derogatory with respect to race, religion, gender, color, or disability; humiliating, or demeaning comments; and threats to stalk, haze, or physically injure another employee or camper.
5. Employees must not use blogs or personal web sites to discuss engaging in conduct that is prohibited by camp policies, including, but not limited to, the use of alcohol and drugs, promiscuous behavior, harassment, and bullying.
- 6. Employees must not post pictures of campers or other employees on a web site without obtaining written permission from the campers parent and/or the employee.
7. Camp Chabad has Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and Likndin all the above applies there as well.
8. The use of our copyrighted camp name or logo is not allowed without written permission from the Camp Chabad Camp Director.

Any employee found to be in violation of any portion of this Social Networking and Blogging Policy will be subject to immediate disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, loss of eligibility for rehire and legal action.
